A black and white portrait of Henry Ford, an older man with light-colored hair, wearing a dark suit, white shirt, and patterned tie. He is looking slightly to the right of the camera with a neutral expression.

"Many people are busy trying to find better ways of doing things that should not have been done at all. There is no progress in merely finding a better way to do a useless thing"

A large, stylized blue letter 'V' that serves as a logo, with a small upward-pointing arrow integrated into its left vertical stroke.
